CINCINNATI OPERA ENSEMBLE PERFORMS FOR "NOON SERIES" ON TUESDAY

The Cincinnati Opera Outreach Ensemble will perform a program of light opera and Broadway show tunes at noon on Tuesday, May 30. The performance will take place in the Reed Hall Auditorium.

For the past twenty years The Cincinnati Opera Outreach, now under the direction of Artistic Director James de Blasis, has been committed to educating audiences about opera and also to the artistic and professional development of America's young, aspiring artists. This year's talented company includes Robin Bartunek, soprano, who is a native of southern California and a graduate of U.C.L.A. Sandra Williams, mezzo-soprano, received her undergraduate degree in vocal performance at Heidelberg College, attended the Cleveland Institute of Music, and completed her masters of music in voice at the New England Conservatory of Music. Lee Gregory, tenor, holds a bachelor's degree in vocal performance from Baylor University in Dallas. The winner of the 1991 Irene Muir Award, baritone Kirk Vaughn-Robinson received a full scholarship to the American Institute of Musical Studies in Graz, Austria. The program brings to a close the campus "Noon Series" programs for the 1994-95 academic year. A new series will begin October 5 when OSU Communications Director, Deirdre O'Driscoll, will present a slide/lecture program on her experiences in Lyon, France.

NURSERY SCHOOL ENDS YEAR WITH PICNIC

- The LTC Early Childhood Development Program is holding its annual picnic at Lincoln Park (behind Memorial Hospital) on Thursday, June 1 at noon. Everyone is invited. Just bring a HEALTHY dish to share. For more information see Mary Collins in the Tech Lab.

YOU ARE INVITED

On Wednesday, May 31 members of Dr. David Adams SOCIAL TRENDS AND PROBLEMS class invite you to a "Poster Session." The students have prepared posters which summarize the results of their research into a variety of local social-problem-related organizations. Students will be prepared to discuss their research and their findings. The organizations represented are: Girl Scouts, Right to Life, Crossroads Crisis Center, YWCA, Red Cross Blood Services, Red Cross Disaster Services, and Goodwill. Drop by Galvin Hall 060 (in the basement) on Wednesday between 2:00-2:45 pm to visit with class members and learn about these organizations. Light refreshments will be served.

ORGANIZATIONS CAN EARN MONEY - Any organization interested in earning money for a campus group during the ALLEN COUNTY FAIR, should call Mike from the Gomer Dad's Club at this number 419-339-1622.

SILVER STREAKS PUT ON GREAT SHOW

The award winning SILVER STREAKS BASKETBALL TEAM put on a great show for the Challengers Club fundraiser on May 23. They defeated members of the Law Enforcement Program in the first half and were trounced by a Barons Athletic team that included Sports and Recreation Director Rob Livchak. (The Streaks spotted the Barons 60 points!)
